

maker festival

make. do. celebrate.

CALLING ALL MAKERS...

- Do you make stuff or love tinkering?
- Do you pull apart, re-design, create, construct, tweak, invent, iterate, experiment, get your hands dirty, play around with, innovate, hack....stuff ?
- Are you working on a Personal Passionate DIY Project, or perhaps you 'make' as your fulltime career and you would love to showcase your process, your products, or your portfolio to participatory onlookers.
- Samford Commons [just outside of Brisbane] is throwing open all its precincts creating one big Makerspace open to a curious public!

Maybe you make crafts using the traditional ways. Perhaps you're a tech innovator like our own Maker engineers who like to 'blow stuff up'. Are you someone who makes the heart soar with your art techniques, or makes the heart sing with your poetry, storytelling or music? Or you're a corporate high-flyer who secretly makes and sells your unique tea-cosy range on Etsy.....We want you all at our festival!

Samford Commons' Maker Festival
